

Native Council

The El Dorado County Indian Council, Inc.

Summer Gathering

This years annual Summer Gathering will be held 08/03/18 – 08/05/18 at Sly Park Lake in the Event Center.

This is an event that teaches the people about Native American Indians traditions With traditional art & crafts, story telling, Native American Indian Dancers, and drumming.

We provide free camping for any one who wants to stay. On Saturday we have a POTLUCK dinner, raffles, and a more. On Sunday we have a pancake breakfast.

This event is a DRUG FREE & ALCHOLO FREE EVENT!!!!!!

All proceeds made from the raffle the council uses to fund all of are other events we offer.

If you are planning to camp please bring a tent and food. All guest are asked to please clean up after yourself. We will gladly take any one who wants to volunteers to help us will be really appreciated.

Summer Gathering

February 2018

Volume 1 Issue: 02

Inside this issue:

Winter Gathering 2

Member's 2

Special Thanks 2

Amazon Smile 3

Scholarship 3

Up Coming Events 3

About us 4

Meetings 4

EDCIC BOARD MEMBERS

As of January 01, 2018; elected board members are the following:

Chair: Jim Snoke

Vice-Chair: John McGregor

Secretary: Nicky Torres

Treasurer: Open

Appointed Donna Torres

Delegate-At-Large: Mignon Geli

Elder: Will Newnam

Elder: Georgann Wilton

Board Members terms are one year. EDCIC holds nomination in November. We have an election in December.

2018 Winter Gathering

This years winter gathering was a real success we had around a 100 people in attendance. We past out around 30 elder baskets. We had plenty of food thanks to everyone bringing a dish to share in the potluck.

We made some money from the raffles we had during the event. We had a lot of people drop off donations for the raffle which is all ways appreciated.

Any donations you would like to donate for our next raffle can be dropped off with the chair of the council or taking to the office.

Hope to see you everyone next year at the Winter Gathering.

Volunteers & Members Needed

EDCIC is in need of Volunteers to help with our events. The council usu-ally has 2 to 3 events a year.

EDCIC is also in need of new members to join the council. Interested people can check are website www.edcic.org or come to one of meetings which are held on the first Monday of every Month at 100 Forni Road, Placerville, CA 95667. The meeting is located behind the building in the conference room. They start at 6 pm. All interest people are encouraged to come.

1st Monday of every Month at 100 Forni Road, Placerville at start time is 6 pm

A Special Thanks

To all council members and volunteers that helped during the Winter Gathering. We appreciate each and every-one of you for taking time out of your busy life's to help put on a successful event.

Upcoming Events

- Gold Rush Days
01/20/18 in Coloma
Park
- EDCIC Scholarship Application deadline
04/30/18
- Summer Gathering
08/03/18 – 08/05/18 at
Sly Park Lake in the Event Center

See councils website for more info.

Shop on Amazon Smile

When you shop with through the Amazon Smile Program you can select any non-profit under the a 503(c) to donate 0.5% of your total purchase to a non-profit of your choosing .

We hope you will choose us The El Dorado County Indian Council, Inc. or EIN: 68-0312180 to donate to our organizations.

Your donations help us provide the funding for Native American Scholarship, Fundraising Activities, Elder Baskets, and Educational Resources to help us edu-

Shop on Amazon Smile & choose
EIN: 68-0312180 to support the El Dorado County Indian Council

cate people about Native American Indian Culture.

Every donation we receive goes directly back to are non-profit. Next time you shop online please shop through the Amazon Smile Program and make sure you choose “The El Dorado County Indian Council, Inc. or EIN: 68-0312180

Scholarship Applications

EDCIC will offer one $ 500.00 scholarship to Native American Indians living in El Dorado County that want to go to college this year.

To either graduating students or adults wanting to attend college. Scholarship application deadline is April 30, 2018.

The scholarship application can be picked up at your local high school or o on the EDCIC website at www.edcic.org

All Native American Indians living in El Dorado County that are wanting to go to college are encouraged to apply.

The El Dorado County Indian Council, Inc.

Primary Business Address

100 Forni Road
Placerville, CA 95667

E-mail: edcicorg@hotmail.com

Website: www.edcic.org

To Provide A Voice For All Native
American Indians of El Dorado County!

www.edcic.org

Council Information

EDCIC, Inc. is an inter-tribal group whose goal is to promote Native American culture and traditions through the preservation and protection of pre-historic cultural sites and resources.

- ◆ The Council started in the 1960's as Native American people joining together to face social, cultural, and political issues in El Dorado County. Meetings were held in founding members homes until the non-profit status was established in 1975.
- ◆ Council members include Native artists, elders, and cultural experts who currently provide cultural demonstrations and presentations.
- ◆ EDCIC, Inc. continues to work with the U.S. Forest Service and archeological resources to protect sacred land sites in and around El Dorado County.
- ◆ The Council also maintains a Native American Scholarship Fund and provides annual grants for Native students living in El Dorado County.

Monthly Meetings

All visitors are welcome. Native or Non-Native Americans who want to come to the Council meeting are welcome to come check us out.

Meetings are held on the 1st Monday of every month at 100 Forni Road, Placerville, CA. We meet behind the building in the conferences room .

Meetings Start at 6 pm.

Check us out on face book

